

FAQs-APC and Payment Options

Why IJRIAR needs publication fee?

All articles published in International Journal of Recent Innovations in Academic Research are open access. The Open Access publishing provides unrestricted access of articles to all readers, anywhere in the world. The Article Publication fee is for the editorial processing charges, language editing fees, colour charges, submission fees, page charges, membership fees, print subscription costs, other supplementary charges. No extra charges will be asked from the authors.

Who will pay the Article Processing Charges?

Corresponding author or Co-authors or University or Institute has to make the payment on acceptance of the article.

When should I pay?

Corresponding author or the paying institutions should arrange the payment once they are notified regarding acceptance of the article. APC is exempted for cases in which a waiver agreement has been made in-prior to submission. We request an immediate attention towards the payment as the articles will not be published unless the charges have been paid.

How do I pay?

Authors or institutions can make payments by the following modes as per their convenience.

PayPal Transfer

Stripe Transfer

Bank to Bank Transfer
